Speak to your Clinical Nurse Specialist (CNS) with any questions about your cancer, your treatment, or any symptoms you are worried about.

How the Macmillan Centres can help

You can drop in to one of the Centres, ring us on 0151 529 4742 or 0151 706 3720, or Email macinfo@liverpoolft.nhs.uk.

There are Macmillan Cancer Information and Support Centres at Aintree in the main reception or Elective Care Centre, Broadgreen in the main reception and the New Royal on the lower ground floor.

The Macmillan teams can answer questions and give support for you, your family or carer.

Welfare and Benefits

Free advice and support is available about benefits from the Macmillan Centre for people with cancer.

Please ring any of the Macmillan Centres for more information or for an appointment.

Travel/Fares/help with transport

People on means tested benefits may be able to get some money back for travel costs to get to the hospital and parking passes are available at some sites. Patient transport is also available for your appointments. Please speak to the Macmillan Centre for more information.

Prescriptions

People with cancer are entitled to free prescriptions.
Ask your nurse, pharmacy or GP for the form, or ask at the Macmillan Centres.

Community Navigators

You may be able to speak to a community navigator for support in your area; please ask the Macmillan Centre or your support worker about being referred to them.

HOPE course

A course to help you after your treatment ends. You can find out more about the HOPE Course by contacting the Macmillan Centres

Complementary therapies

Please contact the Macmillan Centres to ask about our complementary therapies.
